HEAD COACH RODNEY HENNON begins his ninth year in charge of Eagle baseball. During the previous eight seasons, he guided the Eagles to no worse than a second place Southern Conference finish five times and won the regular season twice. When GS finished a sweep of New Jersey Tech (17-2), Hennon recorded his 350th career victory.

While at Georgia Southern, Hennon has accumulated a 295-191 (.607) record, including a stellar 149-82 (.645) mark in SoCon play. In 10 years as a head coach, he owns a 376-229-1 (.621) overall record. In fact, when he captured his 100th career victory with an 18-5 triumph over Wofford on April 8, 2000, he accomplished a most-notable achievement by reaching the 100-win milestone quicker than any other coach in league history... The two-time SoCon 'Coach of the Year' has guided the Eagles to three NCAA Regional appearances... The Eagles advanced to the tournament championship game four times in Hennon's tenure... During the 2001 Regionals, the Eagles defeated No. 9 Georgia for their first postseason win since 1996.
